

DAY 3: Tuesday, October 9, 2018

The day began with the wakeup call at 6:00 a.m. which was followed by a yoga session from 5:30 to 6:15 a.m. for the students.

Students finished their morning chores and reported for their breakfast and short session with Prof. Rajeshwar Mishra for half an hour. Thereafter they left the campus for their second field visit. The agenda of the visit was to organize Bal Sabhas to discuss and prepare narratives of the village experience. This was followed by lunch upon return to the Parivartan campus around 1:30 p.m.

At sharp 4:15 p.m. the evening activities began. The students assembled in the Sabhaghar and then went for the tour of the Parivartan campus. The students took refreshments and played various sports till 6:15 p.m. Thereafter, everybody assembled in the Sabhaghar for sharing their experiences and to have discussions on it.

At 7:00p.m., it was time for the SPIC Macay performance by Shri Bhutte Khan and his team. Dharohar is folk music collective by Shri Bhutte Khan Manganiar. The group consists of numerous proficient Rajasthani Folk musicians. It also includes some rare folk musical instrument players. The group performs with instruments such as Sindji, Sarangi, Khartal, Dholak. Sometimes, they include Kalbeliya dancers as well.

This was followed by a sumptuous dinner and subsequently, the third day of RIP ended successfully.
